

Dunalastair

Autonomous:

Self-governing, free agents who are nevertheless aware of the importance of collaboration in human affairs.

Innovative:

Capable of seeing things in a new light, whether it be designing solutions to problems or crafting new ideas about how to do something, and willing to act on these insights.

Responsible citizens:

Who when acting do so with a sense of responsibility towards themselves, their school community, their society and the environment.

Fair:

Aware of the shared behavioral expectations that make up a community, and respectful of the rights of all its members.

Caring:

Kind, sympathetic and committed to helping others.

Critically thoughtful:

Are able to reason in a careful, methodical, dispassionate and reflective manner.

Open-minded:

Willing to consider new ideas or those of others that are different from their own, even when holding strong personal convictions.

STUDENT PROFILE

We educate our students through the concepts, skills and character that will allow them to be:

Reimagine learning

Dunalastair School